Once you overcome these small obstacles you will be on the road to be SWCC training.

Transient Personnel Unit (TPU)-BOOT CAMP 2-6 weeks
For those that are new to the Navy, make the most of your time in TPU. Learn everything you can, excel in every way possible. Your leadership role begins now. For more information, visit the Naval Training Center Great Lakes (Navy Boot Camp) Web Site at www.ntcgl.navy.mil

Perhaps most important, keep yourself in top physical shape. The Physical Screening Test (PST) is a requirement of your contract. You will be tested during the 1st week of TPU training. The Physical Screen Test is given to ensure that all applicants for the SWCC program display a standard level of athletic proficiency before arriving at SWCC training. You should be in a progressive physical conditioning program to best prepare yourself for the demands of SWCC training.

You will be given three (3) opportunities to pass the minimum PST score. Failure in any portion of the PST is a disqualifier. A brief on Naval Special Warfare will be given to your TPU class.

"A" SCHOOL

Navy "A" School is where you learn the basic skills associated with your rate. Continue to work hard and demonstrate leadership qualities. Be sure to continue your physical training. Upon successful completion of "A" School, you are bound for SWCC training. You must be in peak physical condition to meet the SWCC challenge. If you have questions contact the SWCC Motivators. All candidates are required a re-screening of the PST 30 days before transferring to SWCC training.
